

Problem Solving Session Organized by Career Guidance & Placement Cell ,Girls & Mathematics Association on 17.11.25

Arya Kanya Mahavidyalaya, under the joint initiative of the Career Guidance & Placement Cell ,Girls & Mathematics Association, and the Institution's Innovation Cell, organized a Problem Solving Session for the College students .The session was inaugurated by Dr. Anju, Head of the Commerce Department. She motivated students to continuously develop their analytical and reasoning abilities, emphasizing the importance of critical thinking in academic as well as professional growth.The resource person and convener of the Career Guidance & Placement Cell and GAMA, Dr. Hema Sukhija provided detailed guidance to the students on practical questions, logical reasoning, and innovative problem-solving techniques. She highlighted the importance of solving real-life problems and explained how these skills play a vital role in career development.During the session, students actively participated and expressed their gratitude to the organizers for providing such a valuable learning opportunity.

